OUR ENGLISH LETTER.

The Recent Naval Manœuvres —Arrival of the Vancouver.

The Title of the Kaiser—Boulanger's Reply to the Haute Court.

London, Aug. 22.—The naval manœuvers are being zealously prosecuted in spite of extreme adversity of wind and weather. The home forces have been divided into two squadrons—1st of attack under Admiral Baird, 2nd of defence under Admiral Tryon. It will be remembered that last year the positions were reversed. Admiral Tryon superintending the attack, and Admiral Baird the defence. The advantage last year rested decidedly with the attacking force, and it was claimed on behalf of the defence that such superiority was a natural outcome of the situation. Accordingly this year Admiral Baird has taken charge of the defending party, and Admiral Tryon of the attacking party. But the conflicting predictions of Baird's force have been completely falsified. A channel attack arranged to be delivered by a strong squadron of heavy ironclads, cruisers and torpedo boats, sailing in the appointed rendezvous, en echelon, was so carefully watched by the defending force, that the line was broken and three first-class line-of-battle ships fell into the hands of the enemy. By the rules of this mimic warfare, such captures may be immediately utilized by the successful admiral, and it is thought that this blow will almost entirely paralyze any hope of regaining his position on the part of Admiral Baird. So far as things have gone up to the present, all the advantage has lain with the defence under Sir George Tryon, as it did last year with the attack in the same hands. This can point only to one conclusion—that the situation is as nothing compared with the man.

The Dominion line steamship Vancouver arrived in Liverpool on August 17th, with the shipwrecked passengers of the ss. Montreal of the same line, which struck an iceberg in the Straits of Belle Isle at the mouth of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and subsequently went ashore close under the lighthouse. The Vancouver reported a far greater number of bergs in the strait than usual, and the fogs consequent on the mixture of the cold and hot air are a serious danger to navigation. No lives were lost either of passengers or crew of the Montreal; but much privation and hardship was endured. They spent a week in the lighthouse at Belle Isle, and were then received on board the Vancouver, where every attention was paid to their wants and a subscription started to relieve their necessities. The captain and chief officers of the ship remained in Canada to appear at the inquiry, which will shortly be held at Quebec.

Quite a sharp dispute is going the rounds of the home papers as to the true title of Kaiser William. Should it be "Emperor of Germany," or "German Emperor?" The Court Circular, in its account of William II's visit to England, spoke of him throughout as the "Emperor of Germany." A letter signed "M P.," appeared in the Times, calling attention to the fact, and asking for explanations. "German Emperor" is right of course; really it should not be very difficult to remember, anywhere, the origin of the present German empire is taken into account. The head of the old German empire based his title, to a large extent, upon territorial right. But the modern head of the Germans bases his pre-eminence upon no considerations save those laid down in the Imperial constitution. In 1871, the other German nationalities were much too jealous of the Prussian to restore the old empire for the benefit of their king. Instead they raised up a new empire, and gave its head a new title, as a standing memorial of the various forces which brought it into being. William II is "German Emperor." It is possible that he might like to be "Emperor of Germany," but is hardly likely to gain the latter.

The condemnation of Gen. Boulanger by the Haute Cour, or as his friends call it, the Basse Cour, was, after all, only what might naturally have been expected. A deputation of sympathizers assembled before the Grand's house in Portland Place armed with bouquets—de rigiur on such occasions—and a few flowers of rhetoric of no very pronounced shade. The General's own bouquet of eloquence was of the purest and most virginal white—"He had been called a plotter, because a million of French citizens had made him a deputy." Such was the spirit and sum total of the General's observations about himself and the finding of the high court. He also published a manifesto addressed Aux Honnetes Gens. Both speech and manifesto were characterized by the same airy contempt for detail or for anything like a definite reply to the charges which the Senate professes to consider proved. This attitude was all very well as long as nothing more than rumor accused the General of grave malpractices. But when a body like the Senate, even when all allowance is made for political partisanship, pronounces a judgment which touches so nearly the honor and reputation of a public man, then, surely, it is incumbent on him to say something a little more definite by way of refutation. The charges are not all satisfactorily proved by any means; but the present attitude of the French electors shows that the moral judgment of France is going by default against defendant, who makes no defence save strong language against his judges.

Punch sums up the situation neatly in its cartoon of this week's issue, which represents the General falling backwards from the rock of glory which he was hopefully climbing in the cartoon of April 28th, 1888.

HONORS TO A TEACHER

The School Trustees Present an Address to Miss Gowen.

Last evening a deputation of the city school trustees called on Miss Gowen, late teacher in the Hillside school, and presented her with the following flattering address:

VICTORIA, August 15, 1889.

DEAR MISS GOWEN,—In accepting your resignation as teacher of Hillside Ward school, the Board of School Trustees desire to express their high appreciation of your services during the eight years you have been engaged on the teaching staff of this city.

As a slight token of their esteem accept the accompanying present.

With every wish for your future happiness and welfare, believe me, yours sincerely,

R. WOLFENDEN,
Secretary Board of School Trustees.

Accompanying the addresses was a beautiful, large illustrated family bible, bound in black Morocco and bearing the following inscription on the fly leaf:

MISS ANNIE C. GOWEN,
Presented by the
Victoria City School Trustees,
In appreciation of her services as teacher,
On the occasion of her resigning
The Ward School Hillside.
Victoria, B. C.
June 30th, 1889.

Miss Gowen, it is needless to say, was taken by surprise and completely overwhelmed with this unexpected and unusual expression of confidence. Mr. Gowen made a suitable response on behalf of his daughter, after which the deputation partook of refreshments, drank Miss Gowen's health and the pleasing event was complete.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES

The Record of Single Scull Championship—Baseball, Etc.

Vancouver and Westminster lacrosse teams played a very fine game yesterday, at Kamloops, the first game lasting 1 hour and 15 minutes, and were won by Vancouver. The second was won in 5 minutes by Vancouver.

UNFAIR TREATMENT.

The following report from Kamloops is published by the morning papers: "The baseball committee are working in the interest of the other teams, and against the Amities, trying by the arrangement of games to do them out of a place. They match the Amities against two strong teams, giving the snaps to Kamloops, thus keeping the home team in good condition to meet the Amities, who by such unfair treatment are determined to do their utmost to win."

THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

The record of the world's sing'e scull championship is as follows:

SEARLE-O'CONNOR RACE.

London, Sept. 11.—The start in the championship sculling race was made at ten o'clock. It was by mutual consent. O'Connor was unused to such a start, but the confidence of his friends in him as a marvellously quick starter was justified by the magnificent manner in which he got away. In ten seconds he gained more than a boat length, but not for a minute did Searle lose his head. O'Connor started with a stroke 36 to the minute, but hardly maintained it for more than one minute, dropping to 32 and 33.

Searle's rowing stroke was slower, but he pulled up on him slowly but surely.

Three hundred yards from the start the men were pulling a long, steady, clean stroke, but at an even stroke Searle gained a few inches. Just as O'Connor was approaching the point opposite Walden's wharf, he made a mistake with his right scull. This was followed by a stroke that was as bad. He was ahead when this happened. When he had laid down to his work again and once ahead Searle stayed there. At the Soap Works Searle was two lengths ahead, rowing about thirty strokes to the minute. O'Connor was rowing about the same number but was gradually falling more to the rear. Searle's time to Hammersmith Bridge was 8 min. 44 sec. O'Connor looked tired enough to drop his sculls, but kept up his steady stroke of thirty, dropping occasionally to 28, but showing no more signs of giving up until the race was rowed out at the Downs. Two miles from the start Searle was three lengths ahead. At Bullshead, Searle was a woeful distance ahead and had only a mile to go. It occurred to him that he might as well finish in good time, and he quickened his stroke a little, passing Barnes' Bridge in 22 min. 30 seconds. Then he pointed his boat for the finish as perfectly as the course of the Thames would permit, and when the gun was fired, denoting that he had finished the race and won the championship of the world, the watch showed that he had made the journey in 22 minutes and 42 seconds.

SEARLE WAS AHEAD,

When O'Connor crossed the line the gun was fired also. O'Connor's time was 23 minutes 2 seconds.

LICENSING COURT.

[Before Mayor Grant, Justice Richards and Alderman Harrison.]

Application for the transfer of the license of the Gordon Hotel from J. McKeon to Messrs. Brewster & Winter was granted.

Application for the transfer of the license of the Vancouver hotel from I. Bechtel to Messrs. Fox and Dawley, was granted.

Application of Stephen Jones for a hotel license to sell at the Dominion hotel was urged by Mr. F. G. Walker and opposed by 32 residents and the W. C.T.U., who presented petitions against granting the license. Mr. Walker showed that the house was well fitted as a public house, and it was for the interests of the same that a license be granted.

The bench took into consideration that the applicant had as much right to sell in connection with a hotel as anyone else, he having complied with the regulations of the act, and he would be allowed a license.

Application of John McCartney for a hotel license for the Leland Hotel, corner of Douglas street and Queen's avenue, was opposed by Mr. Hall on behalf of the W.C.T.U. and put in a lengthy petition against granting the license. Mr. Eberts appeared on behalf of the applicant.

The bench was of the opinion that when a man had expended money in building and furnishing a good hotel he should have a right to hold a license.

Mr. Eberts showed that his client had complied with every condition of the act.

Supt. Sheppard said the house was a new one and well furnished, being suitable for a hotel in every way.

The application was granted.

Application for the transfer of a saloon license held at the premises corner of Government and John streets from G. E. Smith to H. H. Ward was granted.

An application for a license for the Dominion saloon was withdrawn temporarily.

Supt. Sheppard said he would draw the attention of the bench to the fact that there had been trouble with the Pacific Telegraph hotel, over conniving to supply Indians with liquor. Mr. Merrifield had been asked to be present, but was out of town, consequently no special complaint would be laid. He had no other reports to make.

A PROFOUND SENSATION

Mrs. Maybrick's Petition Said to Have Never Reached the Queen.

New York, Sept. 10.—A profound sensation has been created by the development that the petition of Mrs. Maybrick to the Queen, praying for pardon for the sake of her two children and her mother, and protesting in the most solemn words her innocence of the crime imputed to her, never reached Her Majesty, but was suppressed at the home office. The Home Secretary will be rigidly questioned concerning the matter upon the re-assembling of parliament. Another discovery is that while the agitation for a pardon was in progress an official in the home office went to Liverpool and secretly interviewed nurse Yap and several other witnesses for the prosecution with a view of securing further testimony against the unfortunate woman, and which, from one cause or another, had not come out in court. Prominent lawyers say that this course of procedure was unprecedented and the developments have given an additional impetus to the movement towards securing the full and unconditional pardon of the convicted woman.

HEROIC STANLEY.

He Subjugates the African Tribes and Establishes a Government.

No Clue to the Perpetrator of the Latest Whitechapel Murder.

By Postal Telegraph.

Montreal, Sept. 11.—Father Sentenne, of Notre Dame, has issued a denouncement of the Knights of Labor and Labor Day. The latter, he says, it was for the heads of the church to condemn. Labor Day in its present shape was nothing more than a revival of paganism.

MARKSMAN DEAD.

Paris, Sept. 11.—Ira Paine, the celebrated American marksman, unequalled with the shot gun, rifle, pistol or revolver, died this morning at the Hotel De Brusel.

SYMBOLIC NAME.

Philadelphia, Sept. 11.—Alfred H. Love, President of the Universal Peace Union of the United States, has addressed a letter to the Chinese government expressing his belief that Chinese restriction laws will soon be repealed and expressing hope that the Chinese will not retaliate against Americans.

NORTHERN SALMON.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—The steamer Bertha arrived from Kodiak Island this morning with 16,500 cases of salmon.

NO JURORS YET.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—The Cronin murder trial was resumed yesterday morning without any jurymen being accepted. The panel was called and lawyers are proceeding with the work of securing a jury.

DEADLY FIGHT.

Baltimore, Sept. 11.—During a quarrel last night between John Kolbe and a negro, William Chester, Kolbe was killed by a blow from a brick thrown by Chester. Sergeant Hogan attempted to arrest Chester. He resisted and attacked the officer, who fired five balls into Chester and killed him. Sergt. Hogan was arrested.

NAGLE'S TRIAL.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—When the Nagle case was resumed in the United States Circuit Court yesterday morning, Attorney General Johnson, representing the State, moved to strike out Nagle's petition for a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that it had not been duly signed by the petitioners as required by law. Judge Sawyer denied the motion. The Attorney-General then moved to strike out Nagle's amended complaint, alleging that a conspiracy existed between the Terrys and others to murder Justice Field. This was also denied. The third motion, to the effect that all taken prior to this amended complaint be also stricken out, was made and was denied. Argument then commenced.

WINNING NUMBERS.

New Orleans, Sept. 11.—The number 8174 won the capital prize; 85,294, 19,019 and 99,990 each drew $5000; 39,696 draws $100,000; 58,673 draws $10,000; and 89,328 wins $5,000.

AFTER MEXICO'S SUGAR TRADE.

Mexico, Sept. 11.—There is a decided movement here on the part of English and American capitalists in the direction of acquiring real estates. Louisiana planters here are also looking out for good lands. It is announced that a famous sugar estate belonging formerly to Senor Mendoza Cortina, at Cuaquatlet, State of Morelos, has been transferred to English and American parties for $250,000. Sugar is being heavily protected by tariff. Planters here have organized a trust, which has artificially raised prices.

THAT WAR SPECK.

Vienna, Sept. 11.—Confirmatory advices have been received concerning the reported massing of large forces of Russian troops in Armenia, on the Russo-Turkish frontier.

A MOTHER'S DEVOTION.

San Rafael, Cal., Sept. 11.—Mrs. Geo. L. Brade, wife of the president of the State Investment and Insurance Co., who was burned while attempting to rescue her little son, who was playing near a fire on the lawn in front of her residence, yesterday afternoon, died early this morning, having suffered great agony during the night.

AN ALASKA WRECK.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—The bark Electra arrived from Alaska yesterday morning with 28,000 cases and 135 barrels of salmon for the Nushagak Canning Co. The Electra brought eleven of the crew of the bark Wildwood, which left this port on April 17th last and which was stranded on the beach in Nushagak River, on August 9th, with thirty thousand cases and 105 barrels of salmon on board for the Bristol Bay Co. The Wildwood is in a bad position and will probably be a total wreck. Capt. Cobon remained with ten men to save her cargo and possibly the vessel.

AN M. P. DEAD.

London, Sept. 11.—Hon. W. J. Fitzwilliam, M. P. for Peterborough, is dead.

NO CLUE.

London, Sept. 11.—The police acknowledge that they have not a single clue as to the murderer of the latest Whitechapel victim. The woman also remains unidentified.

STANLEY, THE EXPLORER.

He Subjugates African Tribes and Establishes a Government.

Brussels, Sept. 11.—Intelligence has reached here from the Congo, that after late hardships and terrible fighting, Stanley has conquered all the tribes of that country lying eastward of Lake Albert Nyanza, and having completed their subjugation, has established a government with Emin Pasha, in charge as governor of the new province. At last accounts he was marching with his victorious force for Mombozza, on the east coast. His arrival at Zanzibar may be expected shortly.

BOODLER AT LARGE.

A Defaulter From Los Angeles Said to be in this Province.

Los Angeles, Sept. 11.—A. L. Teele, a prominent real estate and insurance man of this city, is missing and it is said he has gone to British Columbia. He has three thousand dollars belonging to the Nadesh Organ Tract Co., of which he was the agent. It is also reported that his defalcation will be large.

HUSBANDS AND WIVES.

Quebec Society Agitated Over a Recent Incident.

Quebec, Sept. 10.—Quebec society is agitated over an encounter that occurred an evening or so ago in the presence of His Excellency the Governor-General, between two well known society ladies of this city, one the Countess DeLaudiere, the wife of the chancellor of the French consulate of Quebec, and the other the sister of the attorney-general of Quebec, who is also the wife of a prominent French journalist. The two angry looking husbands, each claiming to be well armed, are looking for each other, but whether a tragedy will result from this meeting may well be doubted.

TWO "JACK THE RIPPERS."

The Murderers Differ in Scientific Particulars.

London, Sept. 10—Men familiar with the details of the recent London horrors of this class say that this last murder must be classed with those known as the "embankment murders," of which there have now been four in all, including the one in which the headless body of a victim was recently discovered in Chelsea, and of which the head has never been found. Although there is a general resemblance between the horrible work of the two murders, in both special pains being taken to mutilate the victims and to carry off portions of the bodies, the murderer in each case carried off a different portion. Besides, there are other evidences in expertness in the surgical work involved in all the mutilations, the embankment murder being by far the most scientific of the two. For some time it was doubtful whether all these horrors were the work of one or two persons; but this last murder convinces the medical men that there are two entirely distinct sets of murderers and two different men responsible for them. It is believed that in the present instance the body was purposely brought to the Whitechapel district to throw the police off the scent, by inducing the belief that the body was that of another victim of "Jack the Ripper." The perpetrator, however, went to trouble that is entirely superfluous, for the police are as much in a fog about one class of murders as the other.

"SUNSET COX" DEAD.

The Famous American Politician and Orator Passes Away.

New York, Sept. 10.—Hon. S. S. Cox died at 8:27 this evening.

Samuel Sullivan Cox was born in Zanesville, Ohio, September 30, 1824. He was educated at the Ohio university at Athens, and graduated at Brown, 1846. Adopting the profession of the law, he returned to Ohio to begin practice, but soon laid it aside and went to Europe. On his return he became, in 1848, editor of the Columbus, O., Statesman, and from that time turned his attention to political issues. While editing this journal he published a gorgeous description in sophomoric strain, which procured for him the sobriquet of "Sunset Cox." In 1855 he was offered the Secretaryship of Legation in London, but declined it, but soon after went to Lima, Peru, in a similar capacity. He remained in Peru one year, and on his return was elected to Congress. During the civil war he sustained the government by voting money and men, although he took a prominent part in opposing certain policies of the administration. In 1866 he took up his residence in New York City, and was re-elected to Congress in 1868. He was re-elected in 1874, 1875, 1878 and 1880, serving twelve consecutive years, making a total Congressional service on his part of twenty years. In the summer of 1882, Mr. Cox visited Sweden, Norway, Russia, Turkey and Greece. In 1885 he was appointed minister to Turkey, but returned to the United States in 1886 after a year's absence, and was again re-elected to Congress. He had the reputation of being an effective and humorous speaker, writer and lecturer. A few weeks ago he came to the coast and lectured in several cities of the Sound.

Mrs. Chase is accompanied by parties from Seattle who will devote their brief stay to the enjoyment of the attractions of Victoria and its environs.

C. W. Robson, the well known tenor singer who has so often delighted Victoria audiences, will reside in Vancouver in future where he has been identified with a business for some time.

Miss H. C. Anderson returned from Harrison Hot Springs last night.

J. Boyd and wife, of Cottonwood canyon, are in the city. This is their first visit for a score of years.

Johann Wulffsohn, the Vancouver banker, is in the city.

H. B. W. Aikman, of New Westminster, an old time Victorian, came down last night and registered at the Driard.

POLICE COURT.

[Before Hon. A. N. Richards, Q. C.]

Geo. Hughes and John Wagner were jointly and severally charged with having stolen, killed and cooked a rooster belonging to Mrs. Mary Murphy. Both pleaded not guilty.

The prosecutrix took the stand in a plain straightforward way told that on Monday afternoon she had fed her flock of hens which were at that time guarded by a large and fine rooster, which had since been killed. During the afternoon she heard a noise in the yard among the fowls, and shortly after she went to the cabin of Wagner where she found the two prisoners engaged in watching a pot from which emanated a most savory smell suggestive of stewed chicken. Looking into the pot Mrs. Murphy there saw the remains of her favorite fowl, and more damaging evidence of the guilt of Wagner was found in the feathers strewn around near the door of Wagner's house was a quantity of feathers and the decapitated head of the lordly chanticleer.

Officer Hawton gave evidence that he had arrested prisoners; also saw the feathers and head produced.

The two prisoners here commenced a lively debate in the dock, each charging the other with the offence of stealing and killing the fowl. His Honor ended the dispute by making Hughes take the stand, when under oath it was shown that Wagner had enticed the bird into the house where it had been killed, he, not knowing but what it belonged to Wagner.

His Honor then dismissed the charge against Hughes and sent Wagner up for a month with hard labor.

MR. JOHNSON'S CITIZENSHIP.

To THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—Noticing a letter in this morning's Colonist written by Mr. E. M. Johnson, in which he claims to have been on the staff of the British army, I think I am not out of place in asking him the following questions:

1. Was he not a non-commissioned officer in a British regiment stationed in New Zealand?

2. Did he not obtain his release in New Zealand from the service on the ground that he was an American citizen?

3. Has he a discharge from the service?

A MONTREAL SENSATION.

Last Thursday night an ambulance called at No. 3, Jacques Cartier street, and Dr. Mount, who accompanied the ambulance, on entering the house found a woman lying on the bed in a state of coma. The inmates of the house told him she had been beaten but could not say by whom. The woman lay in complete lethargy at the hospital till Saturday, when she died. An inquest was held to-day and a verdict returned that Anatholie Chalor came to her death from violence received at the hands of unknown parties. The police have no clue to the murderer.

UNSEATED.

Toronto, Sept. 11.—Justice Falconbridge gave judgment in the Haldimand election case yesterday, unseating the Dominion liberal member on the ground of bribery by an agent.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

The Town of Shoal Lake Suffers from Raging Flames.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Winnipeg, Sept. 11.—Fire last night almost entirely destroyed the northern part of the town of Shoal Lake. A strong gale of wind was blowing at the time and the flames spread with alarming rapidity. The chief losers are Geo. Raynos, whose house, store and tinshop were destroyed; McMillan Bros., feed stables; Grand Union hotel; Scott's store and dwelling; McGregor's blacksmith shop and dwelling; J. Greenshaw's carriage shop; Parkinson's general store and dwelling; Commercial Hotel; Watson & Co's warehouse and Hamilton's saddlery and dwelling house. The loss is very heavy.

THE TOURNAMENT.

Vancouver Pulls to Tee the Scratch—Amities vs. Kamloops.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Kamloops, Sept. 11.—The first game this morning was between Vancouver and Townsend. The former, however, failed to put in an appearance and the game was given to the latter by the umpire. The second game commenced at 10:30. From the first ball pitched till the last man was out the intensest kind of excitement prevailed, as it was seen that Greek had met Greek. Captain N. Gowen winning the toss, sent Kamloops to the bat. They were retired without scoring. The Amities scored early in the game after Jiggs Parritt had been struck out. Gus Gowen took first on balls, went to second on Burnes' out, and home on McCrumin's error. Neither scored on the second. Kamloops failed in the third, after Jiggs Parritt and Gus Gowen had been retired. Burnes hit safe, Parritt and Borthwick followed suit; Burnes scoring. Two runs to nothing.

The fourth innings Schoonmaker took first on N. Gowen's error, Heron and Watson followed with a base hit, Schoonmaker and Heron scoring. Watson scored later on T. Parritt and Burnes errors. The Amities failed to score in their half of innings.

Fifth innings—Neither scored.

Sixth innings—Kamloops went out in order. For the Amities, T. Parritt hit safe; Borthwick got to first on an error of third base; Parritt scored on Jackson's sacrifice hit; Borthwick on a wild pitch. Score 4 to 3 in our favor, and so it should have ended, but N. Gowen made the fatal error in the 7th innings, which allowed Kamloops to even up.

Seventh innings: After Chesley and Herkimer had been retired, the latter at home plate, Shoonmaker, who reached first, scored on N. Gowen's fumble of an easy grounder. McCrumm was retired immediately after. The Amities failed to score in their half. Score, 4 to 4. Neither scored until Kamloops' tenth, when two base hits after two men were out won the game, the Amities failing to score on their half. It was a great game and everybody is pleased, as the Amities proved they could play ball with the great transplants from Minneapolis.

JOURNALISTIC POT BOUILLE

The journalistic "pot bouille" on the Fraser is begun. Perhaps, in imitation of "Honest John," when anything is stirring in political circles, we should preserve the attitude of a "disinterested spectator" of this journalistic rumpus. We are disinterested. We shall not put on mourning whate're betide. Is competent to remark, however, that unless the Columbian knows whereof it speaks it is not only doing wrong to assail the Truth, but is advertising it most efficaciously. On the other hand the Truth must vindicate itself by its works. It is not too much to say that the Truth thus far has proved a publication which New Westminster should rejoice to acknowledge. There is nothing heavy or dogmatic about it; nor is it volatile to the extent of levity. The crispness of the Truth is a desideratum among mainland papers. A free lance publication conducted with a reasonable regard for the susceptibilities of its opponents, deserves the support of every progressive citizen; and if the Truth succumbs it will be a reproach to the mainland admitting of no extenuating features, whether from a business, moral or social standpoint.

THE TWO LANGUAGES.

While undoubtedly the French language has its advantages over the harsh Saxon tongue, which is polyglot and possesses idiomatic features which the average Gaul fails to understand, it is for all a language sufficiently flexible as a vehicle of ideas; and further, inasmuch as the Dominion of Canada is a British province, it would appear that the said language should not alone have precedence, but that the entire trend of the educational forces of the country should be directed toward the inculcation of the British idea both in thought and speech. Such a movement is inseparable from a national instinct. It is impossible for a people to talk French without thinking French, and he who thinks French can no more be an Englishman than an Englishman, who knows nothing of French, can be a Frenchman. Deference, however, to the French tongue has been a characteristic of Canadian policy, and what is the result? A divided empire. It must be perfectly clear to Frenchmen that, since the English language is spoken on this continent by not less than seventy millions of people, it will continue to remain the ordinary vehicle of thought, and that any effort to give the French language a status is labor lost. The steps, therefore, which are being taken in Manitoba to make the use of the English tongue general, marks an epoch of progress in Dominion affairs, and affords a stinging rebuke to the political trimmers of Eastern Canada, who have built up a French nation on British soil, in order to build up their political fortunes. On the ground that it would be injustice to his countrymen, the abolishing of the French tongue in official matters, the Hon. Mr. PRENDERGAST, of the Manitoba cabinet, threw up his portfolio, an act which however, creditable of a Frenchman is to be deprecated of an English subject. The actual and not the nominal consolidation of the two race elements should be the grand object of Canadians. Without it there always will be discord and perhaps bloodshed. The practical amalgamation of the two peoples is inseparable from true nationality and progress.

HERR MOST ANARCHIST.

HERR MOST, of anarchist fame, it is reported, will in November next bring suit against the State of Illinois for damages in the sum of $500,000 for the execution of LINGG, SPIES, ENGEL, PARSONS and FISCHER. MOST proposes to show that these five men, who sought to inculcate their doctrines by exploding dynamite bombs to the killing and maiming of innocent people, were the victims of a conspiracy between the state and the police. There can be little doubt of the intention of the police to wreak summary vengeance on the parties who were responsible for the massacre in Haymarket Square, Chicago, but that a conspiracy was on foot to bring the perpetrators to justice is rank absurdity. The Oregonian remarks, "that it is a commentary on the freedom of our constitutions that a demagogue so dangerous as MOST has been allowed an asylum in this country so long" and suggests that to drop him "into the fathomless depths of the Atlantic, would be a less crime than to permit him to inflame and incite the working men by his pernicious doctrines." There is a better way of getting rid of HERR MOST than drowning him, and thereby earning for him possibly the crown of martyrdom. Ship him out of the [illegible] paid in 1864 for delivering treasonable speeches in Ohio. Such men as HERR MOST are really more dangerous to society than Jack the Rippers, and unquestionably should not be dealt with as citizens but emissaries of evil. There is an honorable living in the United States for HERR MOST whenever he shall conclude to exercise his hands as well as his jaw.

THE IRISH UNIVERSITY.

SALISBURY'S latest fake, the Irish university bill, as an instance of the paucity of Tory political ingenuity, has no parallel of late years that we can point to, unless it be the HON. THEO. DAVIE'S celebrated railway manifesto and later the proposition to consolidate the so-called Liberal Conservative elements of the province in the interest of "Honest John" and our Tory representatives at Ottawa. GLADSTONE, expressing himself of the bill, ridiculed the idea of BALFOUR'S "tentative suggestion that the endowment of a Catholic university would endanger the Liberals' alliance with the Home Rulers. The demand of the Irish bishops for the absolute control of a university endowed by Imperial funds could not, he thought, be tolerated a moment by English non-conformists, who constitute the greater part of the Liberal party. The non-conformists would never agree to that. They would, however, raise no objections to the home rule scheme, which allowed the Irish to endow their own university with their own funds on their own responsibility." This university movement is a juggle of SALISBURY'S to secure the support of the Home Rulers, and the funny part of the business is, the Tories, apparently, cannot see the inconsistency of the party which supports the church of England in founding a Catholic university. It is expected that SALISBURY'S ulterior motive in supporting the Irish university bill is to furnish a stepping-stone to the recognition of home rule. He cannot espouse the cause of Ireland by a coup d'etat, so to speak, except by so radical a reversal of traditional Tory policy as to amount practically to stultification. PARNELL, it is argued, will support the party which will grant justice to Ireland, and the Irish party allied with the Tories, the Liberals are in a hopeless minority, so hopeless indeed, that they could scarcely expect to attain power soon again on any question of domestic policy. The world will scarcely blame PARNELL for change of allegiance. His overmastering passion is the welfare of Ireland. Nevertheless, should PARNELL identify himself with the Tories it would be the unkindest cut of all to his old political friends, for it has been through their exertions that home rule was given standing in English politics, whereas, whatever the Tories may concede to Ireland is that of making virtue a necessity.

WAS THE DELUGE LOCAL?

The unreflecting of the present day remark somewhat contemptuously of the vanity of the Egyptian kings whose methods of sepulture were so costly, so disproportionate to the value of the mortal body. The practice, however, has proved of untold archæological value, for without these tombs and the inscriptions they furnish, our knowledge of the world's history would be imperfect indeed. The latest revelations furnished by the tombs of Egypt's dead tyrants are to the effect that the flood of NOAH instead of being general must have been local, and probably not a very severe flood at that. It will be remembered that the flood of NOAH "destroyed everything on earth." It appears, notwithstanding, that there are written records now in existence which were on earth a thousand years before the deluge; tombs and coffins, in fact, are still extant which date from the time when METHUSELAH lived, and even long before ADAM died. Syene, or Assouan, the headquarters of Major General GRENFELL, was a frontier town in Egypt B. C. 4000. This date carries one back to the creation of ADAM, according to Archbishop USHER'S chronology, but recent discoveries in Chaldea and Babylonia have demonstrated that USHER'S chronology is of little value regarding patriarchal times outside of the Bible narrative. Syene was a populous city, and had an extensive necropolis. On examining the western banks of the Nile, General GRENFELL discovered steps concealed under the sand leading to a rocky eminence, and pursuing investigation under the direction of the British consular agent two tombs of the VI. dynasty were discovered B. C. 3400, which takes us back to the period when Adam was living, and 200 years before he died, and 900 years before the deluge. Last winter EDWARD A. WALLIS BRIDGE, an accomplished Egyptologist, examined the tombs, and recorded what he saw. There were 250 steps leading from the tomb to the bank of the Nile, the passage ten feet wide.

This shows the way which heavy coffins and sarcophagi were hauled up from the river to their last resting place 5000 years ago. On entering the tomb, Mr. BRIDGE remarks, it was filled with fragments of coffins and human remains. These two tombs are known as Nos. 25 and 26. Tomb 26 (the oldest) was built for an hereditary prince named MECHU, a member of the highest council in Egypt, who held the priestly dignity of "percentor" in the temple of Chunumis. The wall of the tomb has been smoothed, and on it are painted various scenes representing the official duties of the great man. He holds sceptres in his hand, indicating his rank, and leans heavily on a crutch, indicating lameness.

Hieroglyphics near the entrance of the tomb tell us that the deceased was a high official in the government of King RA NEFER KA, or Pepi II. This fixes the date of the tomb, for Pepi II. was the fourth king of the sixth dynasty; and that, according to a consensus of authorities, was about B. C. 3400, or about 900 years before the deluge. King AMENEMHAT II reigned B. C. 2500; hence we know the time of the making of the tomb, which was about the time of the deluge, and long before NOAH died; in fact he was living contemporary with METHUSELAH. The freshness of the painting on this shrine is surprising, and the colors are wonderfully true to nature. The finding of these tombs and the names and dates which they record, help to confirm the opinion often expressed that Egypt was peopled before the deluge of NOAH, and the floods did not reach Egypt; hence these paintings and bright colors of date long before the flood are preserved to us. There is much more knowledge of this kind yet to come.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The man who makes the jokes, comes around these days to remark that O'CONNOR men are looking SEARL-E.

The London Lancet comes out as the champion of codfish, which, it says, are habitually starved and tortured by fishermen. After they are caught "they are immersed in the wells of smacks, and on arriving in port some forty of them are tightly crammed into a fish chest which is kept under the water, often until they all die from confinement and starvation." When in the smack wells it is said they are sometimes "specially secured by the tails to prevent them devouring each other." As codfishing is so important an interest in Canada, it is to be hoped that these practices, which, besides being cruel, are injurious to the marketable value of the fish, do not prevail here.

Either BALFOUR is brutish or else so profoundly impressed is he with the shallowness of the Irish cause that he cannot forbear descending to coarseness. In the effort recently made to secure the transfer of Mr. CONYBEARE from Londonderry jail to better quarters, BALFOUR said in response to questions put by Irish members, that he had no idea how CONYBEARE became covered with vermin but supposed that the last occupants of the cell must have left them. Asked who was the last occupant of the cell, BALFOUR replied, "Father McFADDEN, an insinuation unworthy of the Father who is a man of culture and breeding, and reflecting besides on BALFOUR'S veracity for it seems that the priest was released last May. The first thing BALFOUR knows he will earn himself a niche in history as glorious as that of some of the tools of King JAMES the second.

PROCLAMATION.
NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT CHANCELLOR Browning, Commissioner for the C. P. R., has this, the 26th day of July, 1889, issued a proclamation warning all persons from purchasing lots from Samuel Greer in Lot 526, Group One. Now, may it please Your Lordship, I have never offered for sale any lots in said Lot 526, for that would be deception on the public, as the highest legal authority in British Columbia pronounced the title to that lot straw—not one cent as consideration having been given. Now, if Your Lordship will adjust your wig and recover from your deep studies of Blackstone and the laws of estoppel, you will be able to see that the four Judges who threw your case out of Court last April were fully able to comprehend the difference between 526 and Pre-emption Record 1003, this being the REGISTERED NUMBER of my land on English Bay. Come down and see us. I have a few corner lots (with a smattering of coal) yet left. I mean to sell, and the public will persist in buying them, notwithstanding Your Lordship's decision. Things will move just the same at English Bay.

All parties are hereby warned that Angus and Smith have no title to Lot 526 till confirmed by the Legislature, and all sales will be void.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

Regular Monthly Meeting Last Night—Business Transacted.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of school trustees was held at the city hall last night. Present, trustees Hayward, chairman; Col. Wolfenden, secretary; Mallandaine, Heisterman, Dr. Morrison, and Erskine.

The routine business having been transacted, business was gone on with by reading the following

COMMUNICATIONS:

From Hon. John Robson as follows: The municipal corporation has applied to the government for a strip of sixty feet off the west end of the public school reserve, with a view to opening a street between Yates and Fort streets, and bringing into line the present roadway leading from Fort street to the school grounds. The creation of such a street would appear to be in the public interest, and I have intimated to the corporation that, with the approval of the board of school trustees, the government would be disposed to seek the necessary legislation. I shall be glad to be informed of the views of the board upon the subject.

Trustee Heisterman said if the city would meet the necessary expense for fencing and building gates, he would move that the change be made as desired.

Trustee Erskine seconded.

Trustee Mallandaine asked if the change was calculated to enhance the value of the school property.

Trustee Wolfenden explained that it would.

Trustee Mallandaine thought the property holders should contribute one-half of the sixty feet required.

The chairman considered that any such conditions would fetter the matter, in fact, would probably kill the scheme.

On being put to the vote the motion was carried.

A communication was read from Miss Nellie Wolfenden resigning her position as teacher of the fourth division of the boys' school.

The resignation was accepted the board at the same time expressing their regret at losing Miss Wolfenden's services.

From E. B. Houghton, asking for the position of teacher of physical culture, gymnastics, etc.

Trustee Heisterman spoke warmly of the necessity of teaching the development and scientific exercise of the body that the mind might be strengthened. He would move that a letter be sent to Mr. Pope asking that some provision might be made for teaching this branch, but he thought that Mr. Offerhaus was quite competent to teach and by being paid a slightly better salary would do the work.

Mr. Offerhaus, being present, was asked by the board to speak on the matter. He complied, and said that in addition to the games which could be played in the grounds on fine days, it would be a good idea to have a shed built in which gymnastics could be taught on rainy days; he was sure that the money for purchasing the apparatus could be raised among the scholars themselves, while as for an increase of salary he would be willing to devote a part of his time outside of the school hours in teaching the elements of physical culture. He did not think, however, that it would be advisable to add this branch to the regular studies as there would not be time to attend to it; outside of school hours it would be very beneficial.

Mr. Offerhaus was thanked by the board for his explanation.

Trustee Erskine thought as Mr. Offerhaus had stated that the money could be raised, he moved that Mr. Haughton's communication be laid on the table, and Mr. Offerhaus' offer to raise the funds be accepted. Carried.

On motion an adjourned meeting is to be held on Saturday evening.

ACCOUNTS.

The monthly accounts for sundry items were passed for payment, if correct. Amount $17.60.

ATTENDANCE.

Number of pupils during the month, 1344; average 1192.40; number per teacher 45.86.

COMMITTEE.

With the board in committee, a complaint against Mr. Doran was considered. It was found that the complaint was very trivial, and unfounded, and the board adjourned.

QUEER LEGISLATION.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—This is what I overheard on the Saanich road: "Pretty cheeky of the government, I think. Is this field the government's or mine? I bought this land and it cost me $100 an acre to clear it. I plowed it and sowed it and fenced it, and now you say I must not shoot any of those birds! Why, yesterday I counted twenty-five pheasants in one flock coming out of that field. What am I to do? Keep my old woman to 'shoo' them off with a broom, I suppose, or give it up to the pheasants and quail. And do you mean to tell me I must not kill any of those birds until next October, 1890? Well, dash it all, you see that field over yonder. Yes. Well, I have just cut the grain down and how many birds do you suppose were hatched in those few acres? I counted thirteen nests, all hatched this year, and there is never any of them with less than fourteen or fifteen young birds. Why those that make such laws as that are idiots. Do they think that I came here to spend my time and money to clear land and then give it up as a breeding ground for to raise pheasants and starve myself and family? They might as well pass a law to prevent me shooting a crow, killing a hen, or a dog for killing my sheep. Where is the difference? If a man came and trampled my grain down and walked off with a lot more, I can prosecute him; but if one hundred of these birds come along and take possession of my fields, I can't prosecute them, but I must, if I comply with the mandate of the government, sit quietly by and patiently watch them eat and destroy what I am depending upon for a living. Well, I won't swear, but see here, I am going to shoot anything that's going to steal, whether it's in my house, my granary or in my fields. It is my property, and don't you forget it. Now, Mr. Editor, most of us question the constitutionality of some sections of this game law. Where do our civil rights come in in the protection of property? North Saanich is overrun with pheasants; when we come to harvest our grain it is then we find the havoc and loss caused by the various kinds of birds. Up to the present time, however, we have the consolation of recompensing ourselves for such losses by the gun. But if the government is going to tie our hands and compel us to look on at the destruction of our property, it is more than we can stand and such legislation is simply a source of trouble and annoyance. The farmers have many trying things to contend with. In the spring have the crows, martins and minks; then we have the summer droughts; in the fall the owls, and now the government is trying their hand to help us along. The government organ is concerned over some North Saanich organization. It is news to us, but the Colonist seems to know it all; they appear to be far-sighted. If they could only point their telescopic vision in the right direction they could see beyond the moon.

FARMER.

WHAT I KNOW ABOUT CHRISTIANITY.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—Your last weekly issue contained a letter entitled, "What I know about Spiritualism" from an evidently sincere spiritualist. Now, as one who claims to know something both of Christianity and spiritualism, (I enclose my card) I protest Mr. Editor that your correspondent's references to the 'flames of hell' and to what 'big devils and little devils' do, and his assertion that Christians are not allowed to use their reasoning power (!!) are insulting to the intelligence of your readers, many of whom are Christians, and who think they have the power granted them by their religion, (to say at least) to use their reasoning power. If they are mistaken, then sir, you had better discontinue their papers and send them to those who are allowed to use their reasoning powers, say to the spiritualists.

COMMON SENSE.

Daniel Webster's Winning Ways.

The following story of Daniel Webster, illustrative of his winning personal traits, told by a leading local lawyer, is believed never to have been made public. Years ago the late Erastus Corning, of this city, as a comparatively young man, made Mr. Webster's acquaintance somewhat intimately. As a result of the friendship it turned out the former indorsed Mr. Webster's note for a considerable sum. When the note fell due protests came to the firm and they paid the note. Knowing Mr. Webster's impecuniosity and not wishing to crowd him, they did not call upon him for security. After some years, and when it was supposed that Mr. Webster's financial condition was improved, Mr. Corning, at the instance of his firm, wrote asking Mr. Webster if he could make it convenient to liquidate the claim. The answer was a courteous note from Mr. Webster making excuses that just at present he was unable to meet the demand, and ending up by a pressing invitation for Mr. Corning to visit him later, when he would probably be able to pay him, or at least to secure the claim satisfactorily.

The firm advised Mr. Corning to accept the invitation, which he did. On his return Mr. Corning came home delighted with the pleasures of his visit, and entertained his partners with glowing accounts of the great statesman's hospitalities and descriptions of the charming incidents of the sojourn, in which he ignored mention of the business object which partly impelled the visit. Finally, after he had exhausted description of the visit, one of Mr. Corning's friends said: "Well, I suppose Mr. Webster was pleased because he was able to pay the note?" "Pleased to pay the note," said Mr. Corning; "he not only didn't pay the note, but he so charmed me that he got me to sign another note for $5,000, and I am thankful he didn't ask me to make it $10,000, for I don't think I could have resisted his request." Mr. Corning is said to have had a subsequent invitation to visit Marshfield and to have declined on the ground that he could not afford so expensive a pleasure.—Albany Journal.

Whale with Green Peas.

There are obvious difficulties in the way of selling a whale over the counter in a fishmonger's shop. Nevertheless, we may yet see bits of whales being thus purchased and carried away. There was a time in merrie England when whale with green peas was considered a delicacy. History, it is said, repeats itself, and some of us who now strut the stage of life may, ere we die, indulge in the same feast.

In Barbados, when obtainable, the flesh of the humpbacked whale (Megaptera Americana) is eaten by all classes, being preferred to beef, which is there tough. A South Sea harpooner will tell you that, excepting the delicacy of a draught of the yellow, creamy milk taken from a freshly speared she whale, whale fins properly cooked are the greatest of conceivable dainties.

A single cetacean, it is estimated, will supply 500 pounds of extract, and a pound of extract makes 100 pints of nourishing soup. Thus it can easily be seen that one whale is capable of satisfying the hunger of 50,000 persons, if they were content to have a meal of whale soup alone. An average whale converted into extract would suffice for the daily dinner of a man all through his life, even if he lived to the age of 140. As he would not be likely to accomplish that feat, there would be plenty of whale over for breakfast and supper, when—as he might be expected to tire of soup—the cetacean might appear on his table in the form of cutlets, or mince, or even risoles.—Medical Classics.

Rats in a New Light.

I have seen and handled a pair of tame rats belonging to some young friends, and prettier, more playful and more intelligent pets could not be imagined. They were accustomed to run about the table at meal times. They never stole food; but when anything was offered them they sat up on their hind legs, held the morsels between the fore paws, and ate daintily.

They were fond of a game which I saw them play. The rats were put into the boy's cap, which was hung on the hatstand in the hall. The boy and his sister then went to the top of house and whistled. At the sound of the whistle the rats jumped out of the cap, scrambled to the floor, and then ran upstairs and perched on their owners' shoulders.

The general idea of the rat is that it is an ill savored animal, dirty in its person and revolting in its diet, whereas it is delicately clean in person and equally dainty in its food. It is ever washing itself and never eats without washing itself afterwards.

Glasgow on Church Luxury.

The inhabitants of Glasgow are beginning to regard the established church as a decidedly costly luxury. They are blessed with ten city churches, and the ten ministers thereof have a guaranteed income from the rates. The returns from seat rents have been gradually diminishing, until now the city has to make up a deficiency of about £3,200 a year, and the desire of the inhabitants for disestablishment has, of course, been much stimulated by this unsatisfactory state of affairs.—London Truth.

To Increase Lung Power.

I have seen men and women increase their lung power—chest expansion it is called technically—by five minutes' exercise morning and night. Stand up straight on the balls of the feet, head thrown back, and inhale deeply, first inflating the lower part of the lungs and then the upper. Then expire slowly, letting the chest sink first and then the lungs. Do this fifteen times, morning and evening, and my word for it, you'll spend less money on colds and catarrhs.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

To Prevent Lamp Explosions.

Mix your petroleum carefully, and you need not fear an explosion. You have only to be cautious as to the amount of atmospheric air you blend with the explosive vapor. Experiments made since the explosion of a petroleum vessel in a French harbor show that a mixture of one part of petroleum vapor to five or less of air does not explode. With six parts of air the mixture is feebly explosive; with seven to twelve, violently so; with sixteen parts, feebly explosive and with twenty parts of air is not likely to explode.—New York Telegram.

Her Sacrifice.

Young Wife (affectionately)—We can live more economically, I know. To begin, you can stop smoking; resign from the club, give no more wine suppers, and never, never treat any one. Young Husband (faintly)—Certainly, to be sure. In fact, of course. And what will you do, dear? Young Wife (triumphantly)—I? Oh, I'll mend all my gloves myself.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

But Corn Can Never Pop but Once.

When corn pops it gets ghastly white. It is much the same way with bashful young men.—Harper's Bazar.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Much distress and sickness in children is caused by worms. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator gives relief by removing the cause. Give it a trial and be convinced. •

—Holloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who then would endure them with such a cheap and effectual remedy within reach. •

—The most conclusive testimony, repeatedly laid before the public in the columns of the daily press, proves that Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil—an absolutely pure combination of six of the finest remedial oils in existence—remedies rheumatic pain, eradicates affections of the throat and lungs, and cures piles, wounds, sores, lameness, tumors, burns, and injuries of horses and cattle. •

—Robert Lubbuck, Cedar Rapids, writes: "I have used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil both for myself and family for Diphtheria with the very best results. I regard it as the best remedy for this disease, and would use no other." •

Church Reform Needed.

Judging from complaints which are made, some reform is needed in the management of church seats. It is anything but pleasant for a stranger who has been taken in charge and seated by one of the ushers to be hustled into the aisle, in the middle of the service, by an angry pew holder. The stranger is liable to think he has been insulted. He will at least have it impressed upon him that selfishness is as conspicuous inside the church as out of it, and he may fail to see the connection between "a gospel full and free" and reserved seats which his more fortunate brothers have purchased in one of the modern conventicles to his own exclusion.

Destructive Britishers.

The remains of the late Mrs. Condon were interred in Ross Bay cemetery this morning. Services for the dead were conducted at St. Andrews' pro-cathedral and at the grave by the Rev. Father Mandart. A large number of sympathizing friends were present as a last mark of esteem to the deceased lady. The pallbearers were Messrs. Thos. Deasy, J. Stephens, J. Leahy, P. McTiernan, H. Smith and P. Everett.

Bodies Recovered.

The bodies of the eccentric John Collins and Capt. Gus Julien have both been recovered from the sea. That of the former was found in English Bay by Sam Greer on Sunday morning, and of the latter near Moodyville the same day. The News says the number of deaths this season so far by drowning has been unusually large, and the circumstances incident to many have been peculiarly painful and saddening.

A New Route.

The American steamer Brick, Capt. J. Tarte, is plying weekly between this port and San Juan, Sehome and Fairhaven, and finds business profitable. The Brick is a tasty little steamer capable of accommodating a dozen passengers and considerable freight. She arrived yesterday with a cargo comprising 163 lambs, 164 boxes of apples, one calf, seven hogs, two boxes of rabbits, one box of quail and three coops of chickens. This gives an idea of the traffic between this city and the islands.

Jones-McNiffe.

The marriage of Mr. Fred C. Jones and Miss Gracie McNiffe was celebrated at the residence of the bride's father last evening, Rev. Father Van Nevel performing the ceremony. The groom was supported by Mr Chas. McNiffe while Miss Mary McNiffe did duty as bridesmaid. After the ceremony a bountiful wedding supper was partaken of and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing, music etc. Many beautiful presents were received by the bride from her friends, among whom she is a great favorite.

Farewell to the West.

Last Sunday morning at St. Peter's Cathedral, New Westminster, Father McGuckin referring to his removal to Ottawa, spoke in feeling terms of his regret at leaving New Westminster, but said that the first duty of a priest was that of obedience to his superiors. A few years ago he would have taken up the position to which he is now going had it not been for his beloved bishop's influence to keep him (Father McGuckin) in the Royal City. He wished the people farewell, asking their prayers for the bishop of the diocese, who is rapidly sinking and is not expected to live through the week, and for all the members of his congregation.

New Government Steamer.

A fine little steamer is being built at Spratt's wharf for the Dominion government, the Albion Iron Works having the work in hand. Mr. W. J. Stephens is in charge of the work on the hull, and from the lines sent from Ottawa he raised her up, and a beautiful clean model she is. The frames are 15 inches between centres, of oak, natural crooks; the planking is to be of two-inch fir, with galvanized iron fastenings. The boat is to be 60 feet long by 12 beam, and will be propelled by a tandem compound surface-condensing engine with cylinders 7½ and 14 inches diameter by 12 inch stroke, steam to be supplied by a steel boiler built to stand a pressure of 110 pounds to the inch. It is believed she will be very fast as her entrance and run is finely moulded. Everything is to be made first-class, up to the requirements of the government, as the vessel is to be used on the Skeena by Judge O'Reilly in connection with the Indian department.

Back from Her Trip.

The new tug Lorne, which went for a trip to Comox last Friday night, returned yesterday evening. After leaving here she went first to Departure Bay, where coal was taken in, when she left for the Union mines at Comox, reaching there about noon on Saturday. The party who were with her as guests of Mr. A. Dunsmuir then enjoyed a couple of days fishing and hunting, and on Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock the return trip was begun, she arriving here at a quarter to five in the afternoon, making good time. Capt. Christensen was in command, while Mr. Kessler with his staff of engineers from the Albion Iron Works had charge of the engines, which worked extremely well the whole trip, developing good power and running cool. Among those on board were Messrs. Alex. Dunsmuir, Hon. C. E. Pooley, Lt.-Col. E. G. Prior, M. P., Mr. George Fritch, Mr. Henry Croft, M. P. P., Ald. D. R. Harris, and Mr. P. Hickey.

While on the trip the indicator was applied, and the cards given were extra good ones, showing a fine admission and cut off with evidence of good clearance in ports. An indicated horse power of 780 at 85 revolutions per minute, the speed of the boat at that time being 13½ knots an hour. At this speed the consumption of coal was but 760 lbs. per hour, or at the rate of about ten tons per day, which shows that she will not be expensive on fuel. At no time was the full power applied, for when the indicator cards were taken the throttle was not full open. The satisfactory test proves that the boat and engines are fully up to contract and can easily be made to exceed in efficiency the terms specified.

THEIR REASONS GONE

One Will be Taken to the Asylum—The Other Maintains Silence.

The young man named Cotter, at present in the provincial jail, suffering from a mild attack of insanity, will be removed to the insane asylum at New Westminster, the commitment papers being ready. It is thought he will eventually recover his reason.

The other unknown, at present confined in the provincial jail, afflicted with dementia, still maintains silence. The officials have been unable to learn his name or connections, he refusing to talk. He is a conundrum, and the only time he speaks is at midnight, when he generally asks his guardian for a drink of water and then relapses into silence. He will remain where he is owing to the New Westminster asylum being filled with patients.

AU REVOIR

Victorians and Others Who Sailed for the South To-day.

The Pacific "record breaker," City of Puebla, Capt. Debney, sailed this afternoon for San Francisco with a full complement of passengers. The friends of the voyagers were out in force on the wharf to say au revoir, and amid the waving of tiny handkerchiefs in feminine hands the good vessel left the wharf.

The passengers were: Sir Henry Loch, Cape Colony's new ruler, who has been delighted with his two days stay here. He is en route to the antipodes. Accompanying him were Lady Loch, Miss Loch, Miss E. Loch, and his staff composed of Hon. A. Yorke and Capt. Keith Falconer. Geo. Fritch, who has been looking over coal properties on the island; W. R. Bryant accountant in the Vancouver Coal Company's employ and wife, who go to California for a visit; John A. Irving, foreman of the shipwrights who built the new tug Lorne; H. L. Salmon, the cigar dealer, who quietly slipped off to 'Frisco on a tender mission, they say, taking police officer Levin with him to act as best man; Moses Lenz, who is travelling to California for business and pleasure combined; Mr. R. B. McMicking, Mrs. D. Little of Nanaimo and Mrs. J. B. Leighton of Savona, who go south on an extended visit. The other passengers were: Miss D. Rogers, Mrs. Dr. Oliver, Miss Southgate, Miss Shore, Robert Malkowsky, John Butler, A. Shepard, wife and child, Miss Foster, Tom Collins, Chas Faulkner wife and daughter, and L. G. Faulkner.

OUR DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.

Arrival of the Hon. Edgar Dewdney, Minister of the Interior.

Hon. Edgar Dewdney, Minister of the Interior, and superintendent of Indian affairs for the Dominion, arrived in the city last night, accompanied by Mrs. Dewdney. They are the guests of the Hon. P. O'Reilly. The minister of the interior is accompanied also by Mr. Wm. McGirr of the Indian department, Ottawa, and his private secretary, Mr. A. Chisholm.

The visit is of a semi-official character, the respects of the people of the Northwest being received at the several places where the party stopped on the way out, and where the minister took the opportunity to transact some business connected with the department over which he presides.

Mr. Dewdney is a native of Devonshire, Eng., where he was born in 1835. He came to British Columbia in 1859, being thus one of our earliest pioneers. He was for years identified with the public affairs of the province, and more recently with those of the Dominion, and at one time was employed on the Canadian Pacific Railway survey as an engineer. Mr. Dewdney represented Kootenay in the local parliament in 1868-9, and was returned for the Dominion parliament from Yale district in 1872, again in 1874 and by acclamation at the general election of 1878. In 1879 he received the appointment of Indian commissioner of the Northwest, which office he held till appointed lieutenant-governor of the Northwest Territories in December of 1881. Upon the death of Hon. Thos. White, minister of the interior, Mr. Dewdney was selected by Sir John Macdonald to fill the deceased minister's place in the cabinet, the appointment, by reason of Mr. Dewdney's wide experience of the country and general ability, being considered by many a good one. Mr. Dewdney looks well and is enjoying the reunion with many old associates in this city.

WELCH, RITHET & CO. VS. GRAHAM.

Particulars of the Recent Action Taken in the California Court.

Many will remember the firm of Graham & Busk, the original contractors for the section of the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway between Chemainus & Nanaimo. An important suit has lately been decided in the Superior Court of San Diego county, Cal., relating to the liabilities of that firm, which will be of interest to many of our citizens, all of the parties to the suit being well known here. The following is a synopsis of the suit:

On October 18, 1888, J. W. Hanson entered suit in the Superior Court of San Diego county, Cal., against R. A. Graham, claiming that he was the assignee of Welch, Rithet & Co., of Victoria, B. C., of a claim for goods furnished by that firm to the firm of Graham & Busk, contractors on the E & N. Railway, amounting to $13,290.53, and that the said claim was for goods furnished to the firm of Graham & Busk between September 24, 1884, and February 10, 1885. The plaintiffs also claimed interest from February 10, 1885, to the amount of $4,000, making the total claim $17,290.53, for which amount plaintiffs asked judgment. A writ of attachment was issued and securities, plant, implements, tools, horses, mules, etc., to the value of $60,000 were levied upon. The defendant Graham, at the time the writ was issued, was temporarily absent on a business trip to South America, but an application was made to the court by his attorney for an order discharging the attachment on the ground that defendant was a resident of the state of California and his property was consequently not subject to attachment on a claim arising out of a foreign state. A number of affidavits were submitted on the part of defendant to show that his absence in South America was only temporary and that he was still a resident of the state of California within the meaning of the statute. The court refused to dissolve the attachment, and defendant appealed to the Supreme Court of the state, which, however, was not reached by the court at its sitting for the southern district in April, and had to go over to the October term. The attachment was subsequently released by agreement between counsel. To the main action defendant set up a defence that on February 12, 1885, the partnership between himself and Busk was dissolved; that Busk assumed all the assets and liabilities of the partnership; that the firm of Welch, Rithet & Co. had notice of such dissolution and its terms; that subsequently they accepted Busk's personal notes in settlement of the debt, and that one of these notes, amounting to $8,000, had been paid by the E & N. Railway Co. on Busk's account; that this constituted a substitution of Busk as the debtor of Welch, Rithet & Co., in place of the firm of Graham & Busk, and released Graham. The case was heard by Judge Puterbaugh on August 12th, when the testimony of the defendant Graham was taken and the testimony of R. P. Rithet, taken by commission before the United States consul at Victoria, was read. On August 28th judgment was given for the defendant with costs.

The Delta Fair.

The prize lists for the Delta agricultural exhibition have been issued. The exhibition will take place on Tuesday, the 1st of October under the auspices of the Delta Agricultural Society. The society with the same enterprise which it has shown in previous years, offers a large number of valuable prizes which should secure large competitions and give satisfaction to those who take the trouble to prepare exhibits.

Election Signs.

The government has put a force of nine men to work gravelling the Carey road. This road has been in a disgraceful condition for years past, and with the exception of occasionally shovelling off a little mud from it nothing has been done for many years. Of course the residents are grateful for the work at present being carried on, but when they tell you about it they wink the eye, as if to say, 'tumble!'

Hon. Mr. Dewdney's Banquet.

The committee who have had the arranging of the banquet to the Hon. E Dewdney have completed all necessary arrangements and the banquet will be given on Monday next, at 7:30 p.m., in the Delmonico Hotel. It is expected a large attendance will be present, and as the patience of the banquetters and banquetted may not be tried too much, a very small toast list has been written.

Burgoyne Bay.

Everyone seems alive to the pleasure to be derived from shooting the different kinds of game and consequently there are not many of us who have not some side of the hunter's tale to relate, and if the innocent birds could speak how sad would be their lay. Every boat bears large numbers to the city people.

Threshing is well begun among us, and not a little gratifying are the returns to those who have sown and reaped.

Mr. W. M. Williams is home again from the capital.

Mr. C. Horel has been unanimously reappointed superintendent of our Sunday school for the ensuing year and his zeal is not wanting.

Attendance at public school for August was 15.73, and Misses Nellie Wilson and Katie Furness have ranked first.—Con.
